

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs Ivica Dacic received today Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the People's Republic of China Chen Bo and her associates to discuss topics of bilateral and multilateral cooperation, including the mutual support offered in international fora with regard to the resolution of the issues of mutual interest.

It was agreed that the relations between the two countries were excellent, rich and substantive and that they were developing in a good direction, in particular in the area of economic cooperation. The principled support of China to the territorial integrity and sovereignty of the Republic of Serbia was reiterated and continuity in this respect was confirmed.

{youtube}wztcHKFqfIQ{/youtube}

In a meaningful, open and friendly talk, the interlocutors noted that there was room for further promotion and intensification of communication and exchange of information, as well as for the advancement of coordination in international organizations, agreeing on joint activities to that end.